

The Scoop

- Spaces are 10' x 20'. We provide only the land and limited night lighting for pedestrian safety.
- Vendor fee includes Festival entrance for two people.
- Additional vendor tickets may be purchased for $15.
- Camping is available for an additional $20 for tents and $50 for campers, RVs, vans or other vehicles.
- The festival vendor fee is due with your application and is non-refundable. The festival will take place rain or shine.
- All applications will be reviewed in the order received. For the benefit of our attendees and your business interests, we are looking for diversity and will do our best to avoid duplicates. Please provide as much detail as possible with your applications, including menus and pictures if possible, to aid in the process.
- You may set up on Friday evening from Noon to 6pm or on Saturday morning from 8am to 11am. In either case, someone will be there to assist you. All vendors must be set up, and vehicles properly parked by 6pm Friday and 11am on Saturday for pedestrian safety.
- Department of Health permits for temporary food operations are required for all food vendors. At your request, permit applications and guidelines will be sent to you with your food vendor confirmation-this is a simple one-page form.
- All food vendor prices must be posted in a professional, legible manner.
- Vendors using heat and/or open flame for cooking must provide fireproof containers for discarding ashes and one visible fire extinguisher. No open fires are permitted in the vendor area.
- Vendors needing electricity must bring an electric generator of the quiet type and it must be kept close to the vendor's booth. Vendors must also provide their own water.
- Camping is permitted only in designated areas. No camping is permitted in the vendor area. No dogs are permitted anywhere on the site.
- By Sunday, Oct. 4 at 10 am, all vendors must remove all their property and leave their space clean and free of trash and debris.
- Deadline for applications is August 30th.

The Delmarva Folk Festival

On October 1st and 2nd, 2010, the Delaware Friends of Folk will present the 19th Annual Delmarva Folk Festival, an outdoor festival featuring kids activities, crafts, food, and a full program of music.

We have added more music to festival, expanding from a one-day to a two-day program.

The Delmarva Folk Festival serves to showcase outstanding local and regional performers and to provide attendees an opportunity to enjoy great music, crafts, food and fun in a beautiful outdoor setting.

Food & Craft Vendors

The Delaware Friends of Folk invites you to purvey your wares at our 19th annual music festival!

Strategic Shopping Opportunities

- The area for vendors is between the main parking area and the stage area. This is not a great distance so all visitors will pass frequently through the vendor sites when entering and leaving the music area.
- Delaware Friends of Folk will be selling water, coffee, artists' CDs and Folk Festival T-shirts. We will not sell anything that competes with vendors.
- We make regular announcements throughout the day encouraging the audience to visit the vendor sites.

- There will also be children's activities adjacent to the vendor sites from noon until 5:00 p.m.
